A PERSONAL NOTE FROM RASHID

Over the years, Red India has become much more than just a restaurant to us. It's a place of familiar faces, friendships and shared memories. We want every visit to be an experience you'll look forward to repeating.

As I'm not always at the restaurant personally, your feedback means a great deal to me. Your kind words are always appreciated, but your honest criticism is just as important, if not more so.

If we ever fall short of your expectations, or if there's anything we could do to make your experience better, I would genuinely love to hear from you. After all, who better to help us improve than the people we have the pleasure of serving?

Warmest wishes,

RASHID
